Imagine Dragons, Nothing Left to Say / Rocks

Who knows how long I've been awake now? The shadows on my wall don't sleep They keep calling me, beckoning

Who knows what's right? The lines keep getting thinner My age has never made we wise But I keep pushing on and on and on and on

Below my soul I feel an engine Collapsing as it sees the pain If I could only shut it out

I've come too far To see the end now Even if my way is wrong I keep pushing on and on and on and on

I keep falling, I keep falling down I keep falling, I keep falling down I keep falling, I keep falling down I keep falling, I keep falling down

If you could only save me I'm drowning in the waters of my soul

Interlude

Where do we go from here? Where do we go from here? I threw some rocks up at your window I broke some rocks right through your window

Timber, timber We're falling down Let the forest hear our sound Boom ba boom ba boom Ah ooo ah ooo Boom ba boom ba boom Ah ooo ah ooo Why can't I see What's right in front of me?

We fall We fall apart We fall apart We fall apart We fall apart We fall We fall apart
