

Imani Coppola, In a Room

In a Room

In a room you and i are naked

In a moment life is created

The outside world can be so complicated

Close the door and we can escape it

We can escape it we can escape it we can

A man walked on the a train butt naked

Took a dump and then urinated

Everyone was so humiliated

The train doors closed

We couldnt escape it

I got two dollars in my pocket

Im gonna buy me a bullet and...

Throw it away

People act so un-evolved

Some disputes are never resolved

(In a room a problem is solved just Shut the door and don't get involved)

I got some money in my pocket

Im gonna buy me a glock and throw it away

In a room you and i are naked

In a moment life is created

The outside world can be so complicated

Close the door and we can escape it

In a room babies are born

Minds are lost

Lessons are learned

Minds are lost

Music is made

Wounds are healed

Were not afraid

To be who we are

To act like we care

To speak from our heart

Were naked again

And you are my best friend
