

Imani Coppola, Woodstock

Woodstock

I woke up in NYC with a bunch of anxiety the rents due in a couple of weeks but yo I had this really fucked up dream but I just let it slip away thinkin bout all the bills I got to pay I think I'll hock my trinity Ill buy it back on a better day I spent ten days in Woodstock takin it easy so would you please excuse me cause Im feeling quite Zen and Im happy again because I spent ten days in Woodstock taking in easy Im feelin mellow like a cello go head and part the seas just say hello to the fishies for me Wow man what a sunny day I cant wait to go out and play walk down these city streets laughing at all them city creeps but shit I got a lot to orginazize I got a lot of thimkin to do some other day the sun will be out another day the sky will be blue
