

Imogen Heap, Missing You

Oh, i've been longing for as long as i can remember
For something like this to go my way-
And it always felt so right,
And then you take it all away!

Tell me how will i fall in love like that again!
I'm still singing my way through tears in the pouring rain!
I'm still dreaming about those nights of us together,
You see i thought i'd found the love i'd have forever...

Now i'm hiding myself behind this shattered veil,
And i know it's only me to blame,
And i'm swimming through this ocean of grief,
And i'm sailing up your way...

Yah!!

Tell me how will i fall in love like that again!
I'm still singing my way through tears in the pouring rain!
I'm still dreaming about those nights of us together,
You see i thought i'd found the love i'd have forever...
(Missing you, missing you, missing you, yah)3x
(I'd have forever!! That i'd!!!)

And everything in this house is something of you,
I can't escape even though i try,
Photographs of memories;
I never knew i had so many tears to cry...

And i... yah... die (die, die, die)
I never knew i had so many tears to cry!!

Tell me how will i fall in love like that again!
I'm still singing my way through tears in the pouring rain!
I'm still dreaming about those nights of us together,
You see i thought i'd found the love i'd have forever...
(I'd have forever)
