

Impaled Nazarene, Mika Luttinen's Letter

This letter came in the CD booklet of the limited edition of "Tol Cormpt Norz Norz Norz" CD

Dear listener,

You are holding in your hands the re-release of I.N.'s debut CD. Since this release has extra material and the original cover, some things need to be explained, only to point the truth out of this release.

For some odd reason, people tend to see our band as one of the black metal/neo-nazi bands that are now taking the role in world wide underground scene. This original cover is a picture taken from a 2nd World War propaganda picture book, which in fact has been released in England at war time; this picture stands against nazism.

To say it shortly: Our band has nothing to do neo-nazism or whatever. We are not part of the trendy black metal scene where only "action behind the music" seems to be important, where only true people are spreading their senseless "laws" and where brainless idiots are eating all the shit they are being offered.

Before entering the subject of extra tx on this very CD, I would like you all to think with our OWN brains. Do not believe all the stupid, senseless rumours which are going around about our band. Impaled Nazarene is four sane human beings, we are not demonic seed from the very pits of hell.

As for extra tx, first you find Sadogoat EP which was recorded at the same time as pur debut. Since it is sold out we thought it would be cool to release it as CD format as well. Next can be found our 1st EP, Goat Perverson, the EP we regret we made. As most of you know, there are Nosferatu "Records" flyers around telling bullshit of me and our band. The fact is that Roberto Cannavo ripped us off and I wished it would have been only us, but we got over 150 letters from all around the world with people complaining they didn't receive anything from Nosferatu. And these people sent in money may I remind you. Anyhow, we got from N.R.$250 for the studio, having to produce over 75% of the studio costs by ourselves. Mr Cannavo also fked up our front/back cover and the sound on the EP. Those unfortunates, who happen to own this EP, are finally able to hear it the way it was meant to sound. Included is also Sarcofago's cover track which wasn't supposed to be on the original EP but naturally such an unprofessional company as Nosferatu, the track was printed without being mentioned on the back cover.

Speaking of which, Cannavo had guts to put down other labels when he was just a rip-off himself. And to avoid misunderstandings, we have nothing against Sinoath.

Finally included is our demo tape, Taog Eht Fo Htao Eht, sold out, 666 copies. Since its sold out, those who want to hear it can do so yet with better quality. Perhaps you can hear how we have improved from the demo days too.

We thank you Osmose Productions for giving us opportunity to release this in its orginal form. We believe in freedom of expression and speech. USE OUR BRAINS!
