

Impellitteri, Eyes Of An Angel

Lying on the floor from a shot in the heart
Spinning from the lies and a life in the dark
Messing with my mind, I could barely see
Just another lesson that I did not need
Then the sky just opened up and she was standing there
All my fears just turned to hope again
[Chorus:]
She's got the eyes of an angel (eyes)
Lifting me higher than I ever dreamed
Eyes of an angel (angel)
Taking me places that I never knew
She's got the eyes of an angel (eyes)
Lost in your heaven, can this be true?
Eyes of an angel (angel)
Finding the reason to believe again
Now my world can open up because she is standing there
All my fears just turned to hope again
[Chorus]
