

Impellitteri, Fly Away

when you're lost inside the dead of night you can hear the city rage another one kills and another one dies and another one shares the pain see the murder and the rape and a cop on the take don't you know that it never ends the sun will rise and the sun will set but there's madness in the hearts of men caught in the circle with no end in sight better turn yourself another page I'm sick and tired of all the hopeless talk 'cuz nothing's ever gonna' change think I'll fly away into the setting sun away from the dark of the night
'cuz the only time that I feel alright is with you caught in the middle of an endless fight it comes down to time and chance got a lot or a little, better enjoy life 'cuz you don't know whether love or hate is waiting outside your door so you better pray, there's no delay from the one that's worth living for gonna' fly away into the setting sun away from the dark and the night
'cuz this crazy world lives under the gun it's only a matter of time
[solo]
stuck in the middle in the dead of night
generations come, generations go nothing's ever gonna change gonna' fly away into the setting sun where the light was praying for their lives
