

Imperial Age, The Way Is The Aim

Once you are ready to follow your Way
Leave all attachments behind:
Whatever we lack at the end of the day
Is what lacks in our Minds.

Sail all through the night
The wind is blowing,
Nothing in the world is stopping:
We are free!
Take any Way you wish - there are no roads
In the Sea!

When the Wind fills your Sail
Providence is behind you!
No way to fail:
You're the light in the darkness!
In the Ocean of Time
Find your own Direction,
Follow the Signs,
In the end - the Way is the Aim.

Once you have found a Path of your own,
All things are helping you out.
Something is wrong? Check where you are -
It's a wrong place no doubt...

With the help of Destiny,
Walls go down.
But go against the tide -
And lose your crown.
There's nothing in the world that keeps you from
Your Way!

When the Wind fills your Sail
Providence is behind you!
No way to fail:
You're the light in the darkness!
In the Ocean of Time
Find your own Direction,
Follow the Signs,
In the end - the Way is the Aim!
