

In Flames, Everything's Gone

Where I have nothing, fearless and whole
Find out what you are back in time

No, I won't
I need this, truth is

Once you had enough, break out
A room to breathe, to love before you're gone
Before you're gone

I'm the one who brought the mountain down
Tore it piece by piece down
Everything's gone (gone), gone (gone), gone (gone)

Where I have nothing, there's no hate
Room to breathe, no envy, nothing to lose

I'm the one who brought the mountain down
Tore it piece by piece down
Everything is gone

Gone

Once you had enough, break out

I'm the one who brought the mountain down
Tore it piece by piece down
