

In-grid, You Promised Me (Radio Remix)

You promised me
Just me and you
You promised me the moon and the sun, the birds and the sky
You promised me a wonderful life, they were under lights
You promised me all diamonds and pearls that I never kept
You promised me where the roses are gold but soon you forgot
You promised me
Just me and you
You promised me I could be your queen and you be my king
You promised me a white wedding dress, where is your ring
You promised me your time of caress, your kisses of life
So try to show it wasn't in vain, cause I'm wasting my time
You promised me
Just me and you
Tu est foutu
Tu tu tu tu tu tu..
Tu est foutu
Tu tu tu tu tu tu..
I don't know what to do in my life
But I know my rule is no second chances
You promised me
You promised me
You promised me
Tu est foutu
Tu tu tu tu tu tu ...
Tu est foutu
Tu tu tu tu tu tu ...
