In This Moment, Forever

My hearts gone

Hé no longer lies by my side

He left at dawn

And once again I lie alone

Still endless days and nights

I wait for you

Cause deep inside this flame

I know it's true

Forever starts today

Forever we will be

Forever's every day

Forever faithfully

It's been three weeks

(You know I had to leave)

Your voice is all I have to hold

I lie here alone

(I'd be there if I could)

Awaiting for my loves return

Still endless days and nights

I wait for you

Cause deep inside this flame

I know it's true

Forever starts today

Forever we will be

Forever's every day

Forever faithfully

And through it all

No matter how

It all comes down to you

And through it all

No matter how

It all comes down to you

Forever starts today

Forever we will be

Forever's every day

Forever faithfully

Forever we will be

Forever faithfully

Forever we will be

Forever faithfully

Forever I will be

Forever I will be
