

Inara George, Genius

Everybody wants to be a genius
You're not the only one
With all the things that you might do
Which one of them will you get to?
Tomorrow when you wake up
And you'll... show them...

Nobody wants to break your heart
Do it on your own
There's nothing wrong with you today
Nothing you had, that they took away

But all the time you've waited
For what's up to...
You wanna fight, hey we'll fight you too
You wanna lie, who will lie with you?

You're the only one waiting for a sign

So you're the only one
So you're the only one...

Everyone has had some situation
Keep it to yourself
There's no need to answer questions
Your lies have spoiled to confessions

And all the time, you've waited
For come, back to...
You wanna fight, hey we'll fight you too
You wanna lie, who will lie with you?

You're the only one waiting for a sign
So you're the only one
So you're the only...
Everybody wants to be a genius
