

Incognito, Chase The Clouds Away

On the blues of yesterdays
Time is being wished away
I close my eyes and think of you
Suddenly your light comes through
Time doesn't matter anymore
Livin's like a sweet love song
As promising? the things I do
Really don't seem to lead to you
Chorus:

Away
Chase the clouds away
Chase the clouds away
Chase the clouds away
If you stumble on the way
I'll be there to comfort you
To pick you up when you are down
Sever? any clouds away
You believe I'm right for you
You know that my aim is true
No matter what the world will do
The two of us will see it through
