

Incognito, Misunderstood

(J.P. Maunick)

Rejection tars the roads where I have been Still I'm holding on to the same dream
Came through fire and the pouring rain
To be told that I'm the one to blame

Chorus:

Misunderstood

(Never thought that I would)

Didn't know that I could be

(Misunderstood)

Misunderstood

(Never thought that I would)

Didn't know that I could be

(Misunderstood)

They're chasing shadows and they'll never know

The truth about us and their fears will grow

Only we know what has not been told

We'll meet in secret in the fields of gold

Chorus

Bridge:

So now they come to see me cry

Too late now, the well's run dry

I know they think I'm putting chains on you

Let the fools believe, it's what they wanna do

Chorus
