

Indigo Girls, Letter To Eve

Oh Eve, where is Adam?
I see you've been kept out of the garden
And I said
Oh, Eve, where is Adam?
Now you've been kept
out of the garden
I have wandered from shore to shore
Don't you find that there's no more Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Don't you wish
love alone
Don't you wish
love
Don't you wish
love alone
Don't you wish
love
Don't you wish love alone could save the world from disaster Is only love, inner confusion
Is it just one more illusion
And I said
Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Well, if you want to have great love
you've got to have great anger
Well, if you want to have great love
you've got to have great anger
When I see innocent folks shot down Should I just shake my head and frown
Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Girl if you want to hit the target square you've gotta look out (for it not happening there)?
Or else it'll be just one more time
The correction creates another crime
Girl if you want to hit the target square
you better not have right angles Oh, just keep one more time for the correction creates another crime Oh, Eve, you tell Adam Next time he asks you
You say baby it's cold outside What's the password to come inside
You say
Pacem in terres me shanti shalom haywah
Oh Eve go tell Adam
We've got to build a new garden
Oh Eve go tell Adam
We've got to build a new garden
Got to get working on a building
A decent home for all of god's children
Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Well if music
could only bring peace
I'd only be a musician
Well if music
could only bring peace
Well if songs could do more than dull this pain
And all melodies bravely changed well
Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah

Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Four thousand languages in this world Doesn't mean the same thing to every boy and girl
Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah
Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah (save the world from disaster well if only love....
...well I sad...
...just one more illusion...
Oh Pacem in terres me shanti shalom aywah)
