Ingrid Michaelson, Far Away

I will live my life as a lobsterman's wife on an island in the blue bay. He will take care of me, he will smell like the sea, And close to my heart he'll always stay.

I will bear three girls all with strawberry curls, Lou Ella and Nelly and Faye.
While I'm combing their hair, I will catch his warm stare
On our island in the blue bay.

Far away far away, I want to go far away.
To a new life on a new shore line.
Where the water is blue and the people are new.
To another island, in another life.

There's a boy next to me and he never will be anything but a boy at the bar. And I think he's the tops, he's where everything stops. How I love to love him from afar.

When he walks right pass me then I finally see on this bar stool I can't stay. So I'm taking my frown to a far distant town On an island in the blue bay.

Far away far away, I want to go far away. To a new life on a new shore line. Where the water is blue and the people are new. To another island, in another life.

I want to go far away.

Away away, I want to go far away, away, away
I want to go far away, far away.

Where the water is blue and the people are new. To another life, to another life. To another shore line In another life.
