Ingrid Michaelson, Oh What A Day

Oh what a day is today Nothing can stand in my way Now that you've shipped out from under my skin I think I'm ready to win

Oh what a night is tonight I think I'm ready to fight Now that my broken bones all have been healed I think I'm starting to feel

Something good Something good Now that you're gone I can roll on to something good

Oh what a way that we die Plenty of tears were supplied My eyes are wrung out and dry as a bone And I taste much better alone

Something good Something good Now that you're gone I can roll onto something good

Oh you know I moved away From the other side of the door I don't have to wait anymore for you to come home Something good Now that you're gone I can roll on to something good Something good
