

Inhaler, We Have To Move On

on this rainy day
I beg for your hand in marriage I feel it's been a pleasure to bathe in my own discomfort when I am on my knees and I feel a little spontaneous honey, I've lost the ring but I want to know it's on purpose like it's your last night

move on the last lie
so long
if you do
move on
the last lie
move on
come on

you have made mistakes but I'd rather them said than spoken sad, serious face
I will never become unbroken
like it's your last night

move on
the last lie
so long
if you do
move on
the last lie
move on
come on

you have to move on gotta leave it all behind gotta stay down
coz we know we're gonna die this is real life
lie between the yes
now we don't run
but we're running out of time we have to move on leave it on the table

move on
the last lie
so long
if you do
move on
the last lie
move on
come on
