

Iniko, Armor

I've been a little bit cold
Been a little too bold
They were telling me to slow down
I've been in really deep holes
Spinning out of control
Now, I gotta go to war now
My mind is a weapon
And my body is a battlefield
And I know my soul's intentions
To know what is
To know what's real

Oh, I don't need armor
I'm more than brave
Gotta go harder
I will not be a slave, ah
Head above water
So many waves
I am not son or daughter
No label, no name

I'll never run out of time
Never run out of light
Something that I don't believe in
Keep shifting the paradigm
Got a whole new sight
And my ego is the reason
My mind is a weapon
And my body is a battlefield
And I know my soul's intentions
To know what is
To know what's real

Oh, I don't need armor
I'm more than brave, yeah
Gotta go harder
I will not be a slave, ah
Head above water
So many waves
I am not son or daughter
No label, no name (oh)

Sky is falling, they are calling
Now the blind will see
The ground beneath us is shaking
The sheep are finally waking
Send your soldiers
Send your army
Send 'em 10 by 10
Fear will never destroy me

Oh, I don't need armor
I'm more than brave, yeah
Gotta go harder
I will not be a slave, ah
I am not son or daughter
