

Inker & Hamilton, Dancing Into Danger

Dancing into danger
dancing into danger.
Watching and waiting
checking on every move that you make.
If you go dancing into danger.
You keep hesitating knowing you'll pay for any mistake
You won't be dancing into danger.
In a foreign land there's no home ground
There's nowhere to run to in this town.
Stay on your guard both night and day
You've got to be ready come what may.
Watching and waiting checking on every move that you make

...
You're an alien and you don't belong
But you're pretending to be iust one of the throng.
So conscious of every word you say You're not gonna give yourself away.
Dancing into danger
dancing into danger.
Oh
they're out to get you
gonna get you now
Oh
they're out to get you
gonna get you now
Oh
they're gonna get you
gonna get you now!
Watching and waiting
checking on every move that you make
You won't be dancing into danger.
Watching and waiting checking on every move you make

...
You're watching and you're waiting checking on every move that you make
If you go dancing into danger.
