

Inna, Follow Me

Every little thing, running through my mind
When you used to call me almost every night
You keep telling me there's no going back
Oh, you make me feel just like a maniac

I know, I know I can change your mind
Oh, I don't, don't wanna leave you behind

So follow me, follow me, follow me tonight
Don't let me, don't let me, don't let me behind
Follow me, follow me, follow me tonight
I know I can change your mind

Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, behind

Something in the air when you're not around
I can hear your voice in almost every sound
Your friends always say that I'm not good for you
In your heart I'm sure you feel that isn't true

I know, I know I can change your mind
Oh, I don't, don't wanna leave you behind

So follow me, follow me, follow me tonight
Don't let me, don't let me, don't let me behind
Follow me, follow me, follow me tonight
I know I can change your mind

Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, behind

Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, follow me
Follow me, follow me, behind
Follow me, behind
