

Innerpartysystem, The way we move

She`s simply just a
concept baby
you don`t know how much I can get
and when you speak you
speak of sex
have to lose
now you`ve been looking for something something
to make a new connection with hurting a good think I`ve been waiting for someone someone
to break the repetition
with a sin dripped tounge
it`s in the way she moves
across the floor
it`s in the way she keeps me waiting for
for what I
can`t recall
now I`m standing on the
edge of broken confidence
and this will be the thing
that makes it right
concept, simply just a
concept baby come on
she was simply just a
you din`t know how much I regret
and when you think you
think of sex
I`v lost almost everything now
you`ve been looking for something something
with fixing a lost thing
waiting for
process now
down
I`m keeping up with
the others

but now I still recall
when we weren`t so selfish and kept on dancing
tonight tonight tonight
tonight
and this will
change everything
that made us right
