

Insane Clown Posse, Into Thy Light

A presence can be felt(4x)

By those who have followed the epic saga told by the Insane Clown Posse

It is a presence synonymous with the crumbling of time itself

Thus emerges a being so powerful that it can exist between both the land of the living and that of the dead.

He goes by many names but is known to the living only as The Wraith.

He walks upon worlds forgotten and descends from heavens faded to grey, to witness the death of all mortal things. So that he may guide the departed upon the path that they have chosen (Shangri-La)

Here is the story of the path to Shangri-La.

The sixth jokers card (The Wraith)

Only now will we truly understand the meaning of the saga, for this saga all along each jokers card has actually none other than.....the echo of our lives.

Hurry up show's startin

I can't believe they're still having it

I better get my butt in there right now

Ladies and gentlemen welcome to the sensational and amazing...

Carnival of Carnage

They said it wouldn't happen they said it wouldn't last but boys and girls and everyone we've got a carnival for that ass

Tens of thousands of freaks sideshows and fools

a carnival who together lives by their own rules

We looked into the stars foretold everyone something dark and wicked this way comes (this way comes)

We told of oddities crawling from the dark and a carnival which we can all belong

I dwell upon the streets and I can tell you this

I see some circus Juggalo shit going on People drawn together by rare and scrubby music and we even gather once a year to put it down

With tilt-a-whirls and merry-goes and carnivals of Faygo

we're just trying to tell you all about the light right

Now all the Jokers Cards have fallen with spectacular array

so when the Wraith is calling walk into the light, right

I hold a bloody axe, dress in hatchet red we speak languages people don't understand (don't understand)

I send Faygos via punted clear across a stadium in fashion only fuckin Juggalos could ever demand

I got ninjas in my backyard wearing Anybody Killa paint

I'm thinkin "What the fuck is going on?" (thinkin "what the fuck is going on")

Then I see the platinum on the wall and I realize the Carnival's been right here all along so let's bring it on

With tilt-a-whirls and merry-goes and carnivals of Faygo

we're just trying to tell you all about the light, right

Now all the Jokers Cards have fallen with spectacular array

so when the Wraith is calling walk into the light, right

The crows have overlooked (they looked) we gave you all they gave (they gave) the carousel will spin on through the night (through the night)

In Oz I'd be the Wizard cause I'm overwhelmed

but we just hoped the Jokers Cards would point you out to the light

So you'll be tight, right

With tilt-a-whirls and merry-goes and carnivals of Faygo

we're just trying to tell you all about the light right

so when the Wraith is calling walk into the light right
