

Inside Out, Heaven's Gift (Silence)

In the silence all I hear is the burning of the candles,
And in the darkness all I see are the shadows of the shadows,

CHORUS:

Yet it feels so bright

And time stands still;

Today becomes tomorrow as morning breaks the night

And turns a world of heartfelt sorrow into joy

And darkness into light

When I consider Heaven's Gift, and yet my soul-- so undeserving

A fount of love that never ends, and a Spirit ever serving,

CHORUS

Feels so bright,

Time stands still

In the silence all I hear

In the darkness I see

A fount of Love that never ends

Oh my soul so undeserving

As you're kneeling by my side, and you give your heart to Heaven,

My spirit's eyes are open wide, and my soul can see forever.
