

Insight, 15 Minutes Of Love

There you were,
i was flying
by your eyes

You looked at me
i was dying
for your smile

Now the passion is gone
it lasted fifteen minutes i recall Now we trough it all together and more, and ready to fall

The time has past away
and i'm feelin okey
i don't see you the same, any more This endless game is always the same for us to play

15 minutes of love was all we had,
and all we shared 15 minutes of love

The time has past...x2
