

Insight, Universal

(Mr. Lif)

just as you order tight, amplified ribs served on a platter, make your mind chatter my data is that of a chef and yesterday's special is fresh emcee chest take a closer look, you'll notice he's heartless a shallow man with too many words to manifest marinated and dressed, ready to ingest I bet he wishes he ran, he didn't understand

(Insight)

he flecked off set when exposed to flow physics critically corrodes complex techs to tidbits granulated strips stripped down the sound basics from fabricated mix twenty bits ? specifics tasteless tips of clowns fit to few digits categoric strip hits you everyday dimwits with solitigated sound soaked in sencful solvents slappin your syndicates lost lyric ligaments opposition punks for a profound predicament to end the flooded figment of hostility hop in the cockpit quick, as I navigate to targets optics locked in what I narrate

(Mr. Lif)

calculated time of arrival undefined destination is knowledge, it's a trip through the mind we've been assigned to give vision to the blind who cant find their way out of the terrible bind of course our arrival has been properly timed the moon is in place, the stars are aligned Mr.. Lif (and insight) have been combined to take assault to a higher level of rhyme

{"Universal Hip Hop"}
{"The mic open killer..
{"Turn it up, turn it up yo"} {"Universal"}

aggressive flav, accurate punch impressive

(Mr. Lif)

yo, I'll pull your way out of your regular state increase metabolism to a post-cellular rate and as you break your self down internally I write in my journal see thoughts that'll remain eternally paragraphs that'll last through the mega blast chemical warfare and even the aftermath endure radiation as well as the fallout and out of the darkness, my voice shall call out reviving souls from both north to south poles it's time to resurrect and redirect our goals thoughts will make heat so you wont be cold the samples are your physical, your heart is the drum roll cherishin' lifetime, respect is the guideline

I'm chillin ?? as you progress to the sideline and as I'm coachin' I'll refill the oceans and nature be vast, cause my mind is open

by the time we closin' one notch should have soaked in in a conscious clothing thoughts cut I and fold in than perfectly pressed words would be in mold like clay usin' focus flows hold as I'm creative with the logic toxic, acidic base pumps the blood as spirit of our ancient ancestors sharpen my vision incisions made, negative decisions are slaughtered bringin' back order, wax and water my thoughts a thirst-quenching source short of ?
while the seven seas bleeds we've circled the earth's breeze freezin' evil at our discredal insight and Mr.. Lif words ? to live eternal
