

Interference, Let It All Past

Hey baby, be good to Buddha
Hey baby, what's your goal?
Hey baby, where you're going, nobody knows

And my bush is your bush
And this valley belongs to no-one
And if we're happy, happy or sad
It doesn't matter, all things must pass

Hey Charlie, stop your name calling
Don't throw stones
Hey Charlie, where you going, nobody knows

And I could've been, and I could've done that
I was involved in a passing moment
I should've seen and reacted
I was involved in a passing moment

And my bush is your bush
And this valley belongs to no-one
And if we're happy, happy or sad
It doesn't matter, all things must pass
