

Interference, Vinegar Girl

Vinegar girl with your vinegar smile
Ain't seen your blue eyes in this bar for awhile
We sure had something didn't we babe
Now I'm scattered in the plans that we made

Vinegar girl you're fickle
Vinegar girl it's all so simple
Vinegar girl I'm pickled
Vinegar girl..

I was the winter you were the sun
I was living in apathy but living so happily
You were giving it to everyone
I was the winter and you were the sun
I was the winter and you were the sun

All will subside and you will remember
That love is like wine
But wine turns to vinegar, girl

Vinegar girl, it's all too much
You were the needle and I was the crutch
It's a curse when we love like this
How sweet the idea how bitter the kiss
How sweet the idea how bitter the kiss

All will subside and you will remember
That love is like wine
But wine turns to vinegar, girl
All will subside and you will remember
That love is like wine
But wine turns to vinegar, girl
