

Internal Suffering, Catacombs Devourer

From the catacombs, from the murky deserted place the abominable monstrosity has appeared extending its wickedness all over the planet strange entity, unmerciful destroyer ambushing in the dark to devour humans Pestilent hideous presence Immense and powerful Huge reptile scale
Big animal snout
Horrible, monstrous
For a long time remained into the dense forest none of the animal species survived since they were its prey now human blood makes it stronger and feeds on their flesh Entire nations exterminated in their search for salvation but their lives are other god's own and have began to send their hordes There's no escape, beg for your life the monster's footprints have remained the ancient god's order has been accomplished the abominable beast's been sated the world is theirs, and now returns to the Catacombs
