

Interpol, Passenger

I'm on the other side of make believe
If I go unchecked what will the world make of me
I don't feel hunted but I fear faithfully
I would never cheat
But I might take advances
These little statements are mere replacements
For something they stole
Times I was laughed at
When I'd fall into a hole
Fade into a flashback
Real close
Free from these fables
We can grow
Blossom into bodies
Too frail to hold
As I commit to this high wall of love
Will I ever sleep
While I wait for the world to give it all back?
There's nothing so sacred
I ain't tried to chase it
I need something to hold
Someone to grasp at
When I fall into a hole
With a mountain on my back
Real close
Save me I'm in my head
Save me I'm in my head
Please, you know why
Please, you know why
Fall, fall
There's nothing so sacred
I ain't tried to chase it
I need something to hold
Someone to grasp at
When I fall into a hole
And fade into a flashback
Real close
Save me I'm in my head
Save me I'm in my head
Please, you know why
Please, you know why
Fall, fall
