Intestine Baalism, Awaking

Rebirth of the internal power Awakening of the ancient memory and thoughts Feelings of ecstasy as if floating I cannot recall the dreams that I had seen up until the day before Frozen heart, brutality Nothing can control me Fears enter me No feelings of sorrow within me Boiling amnio turns black Effuse sickening stench When the boiling amnio reaching the critical point It suddenly hardens and time stops Hardened amnio becomes transparent My children who wake me You have served a great role in this chain of events Surely our evil brethren shall prosper Time begins to move again Inorganic vapors solidify around me No one can be like him, the black angel Finally he descends upon the world
