Iona, Edge Of The World

Mist that hangs like silk Soaking in the rain Trees that rise like ghosts Bearing people's names And a sea that takes me Where I do not know But I gladly go

Shrouded in the sweetest grass I've ever known
This my earthly bed
My beloved home
But the voice that calls me
To the far away
I can only trust every word you say

And here I am
Out on the edge of the world
With You, With You

Shall I leave the print of my knees Upon the sand This my final prayer In my native land Shall I turn my face Towards the shining sea Taste the salt of tears For those I have to leave
