

Iron Maiden, These Colours Dont Run

It's the same in every country when you say you're leaving Left behind the loved ones waiting silent in the hall Where you're going lies adventure others only dream of Red and green light this is real and so you go to war

For the passion, for the glory,
for the memories, for the money
You're a soldier, for your country, what's the difference, all the same

Far away from the land of our birth
We fly a flag in some foreign earth
We sailed away like our fathers before
These colours don't run, from cold bloody war

There is no one that will save you, going down in flames No surrender certain death to you look it in the eye
On the shores of tyranny you crashed a human wave Paying for my freedom with your lonely unmarked graves

For the passion, for the glory,
for the memories, for the money
You're a soldier, for your country,
what's the difference, all the same

Far away from the land of our birth
We fly a flag in some foreign earth
We sailed away like our fathers before
These colours don't run, from cold bloody war
