

Iron Savior, Atlantis Falling (Live)

A flash of destruction like a blaze cut through the night
The heavens on fire they were glowing in unholy light Your sudden assault broke all the dreams of unification
The hunger for power it's the lash of civilisation despaired and in pain - all seems so in vain

Fires in the sky
defenceless we stand tonight we will die
Shadows of the end the Kingdom will fall life it will finally descend perceive what you've done and repent

Careless we thought all you do is to bark at the moon
But in the grip of fury you have conjured
the dawning of doom is this our fate - wiped out by your hate

Fires in the sky
defenceless we stand tonight we will die
Shadows of the end
the Empire will fall life it will finally descend Goddess of the seas let us rest in peace
In her cold embrace we will find our graves

Silence will set in - will existence begin - again
Fires in the sky
helpless we stand defenceless we'll die
Shadows of the end
the Kingdom will fall life will descend Fires in the sky
helpless we stand defenceless we'll die
Shadows of the end
Atlantis will fall life it will finally descend descend... for evermore
