

Iron Savior, Break It Up

Out of money and out on the streets this wasn't your dream thought you'd make it high to the top but stumbled in between wanted to catch a piece of the action you couldn't resist bought a ticket to another dimension where troubles don't exist

Unleashing the creature that rules your mind it hits you like thunder dragging you under can't you see you're losing control

Dangerous joys - shot right through the brain gonna crack you up drive you insane Dangerous joys - running through your veins gonna wrack you up please break it up Break it up

Flying high on borrowed illusions you're playing with fire Being dominated by obsessing desire

The fever is rising it's like a disease can't you see you're down on your knees

Dangerous joys...
Dangerous joys...
