

Iron Savior, Forces Of Rage

[Music and lyrics by P. Sielck]

[All vocals by Piet]

Under the ice we hide from your stare buried in grief and despair We're the derbies, the scattered remains, leaves in the storm who is lashing the world

Destiny calls, extinction of man will it all happen again But yet we're alive, unbroken we stand to banish the conqueror who's taken the land

We'll be a thorn in your unhuman flesh
There'll be a time for retortion We'll break the fetters, we'll never give in although it seems our end will begin

Forces united - forces arise
Legions of iron descent from the skies
Dark knight - you'll never defeat
The immortal spirit of freedom Savior - watch out beware
We will engage
The forces of rage

Starbirds are gliding on winds of decay merciless hunting the pray Infernal machine, the hatchet of war sharp as a razor will cut back the claw

We'll be the virus - a deadly disease the fever is burning inside you To bring you to fail is the ultimate aim We'll rise from the ashes again and again

Forces united - forces arise
Legions of iron descent from the skies

Free - at least for a moment in time Years - how many years have gone by In fury and wrath we're looking above Forging the sword, the blade of reprisal
Leaders of man let's ride out again
From fire and ice a blazing star will arise

[Solo: Piet]

We'll be a thorn in your unhuman flesh

Forces united - forces arise
