

Isabel LaRosa, older

think i need someone older just a little bit colder take the weight off your shoulders

baby
am i your little secret 18
i'm old enough to keep it yeah, guys my age just aren't the same i'm young and that's okay darlin'

hold me while you wipe my tears fallin'
you say i'm wise beyond my years i know i'm younger as your lover

but i've always wanted a man for the summer age is a number
my dear i know you'll understand
