

Isak Danielson, Fire Burns You Cold

Can I live without it
Be on my own
Will I ever doubt the love that you
And me have grown

Will i walk out stronger
Will i break in two
But i guess regret is just a part
Of loving you

You want the fire when the fire burns everything down to the ground
Am i a liar, i'm not lying here alone when you're not around

I don't want love like this
I'll miss your kiss
But that's the way it goes

Who wants the fire when the fire
The fire burns you cold
I don't understand you
The way you speak
Maybe its danish
That makes our conversations weak

So tired of fighting
And of all the lies
Is passion the only thing that Keeps our love alive
You want the fire when the fire burns everything down to the ground
Am i a liar, i'm not lying here alone when you're not around

I don't want love like this
I'll miss your kiss
But that's the way it goes

Who want's the fire when the fire
The fire burns you cold

Can you say i love you
And everything is okay
Or is it just game over
In this game that we play

You want the fire when the fire burns everything down to the ground
Am i a liar, i'm not lying here alone when you're not around

i'll miss your kiss
but that's the way it goes
who want's the fire when the fire
