Translation:

"Truth"

Another day has begun
It's a morning of hope
And a warm light will touch your smile
And in every down there is always a reason longing for the top.

Cause the truth is in you
She will give you the power
To find the truth again
Then you won't runaway
Then you'll sing a song of freedom
You'll feel like a hero
Then you'll know you'll getting there

Don't closer yourself open an inner window
Go and see the world
Then You'll understand why & what
That there is a love to get & recive
To everyone who wants.
