Translation:

"Truth"

Another day has begun It's a morning of hope And a warm light will touch your smile And in every down there is always a reason longing for the top.

Cause the truth is in you
She will give you the power
To find the truth again
Then you won't runaway
Then you'll sing a song of freedom
You'll feel like a hero
Then you'll know you'll getting there

Don't closer yourself open an inner window Go and see the world Then You'll understand why & Damp; what That there is a love to get & Damp; recive To everyone who wants.
