

Isis Gee, Intoxicaiton

So I lay it on the line
I'm waiting
Trouble in this paradise
I'm fading
Unravel me with love
I'm taken
Broken wing and falling chain
I'm fated
I'm fading like the leaves in Fall
And drunken by eclipses calling
The love is heaven sent
The Light is permanent
This may come as no surprise
The diamonds cut within your eyes
They glimmer and they shine
Beneath this empire
Of love
Rapture leading by the hand
I'm tempted
Solitary loving trance
I'm lifted
Beckoning with open arms
I'm falling
Persevering your heart
I'm awakened
I'm fading like the leaves in Fall
And drunken by eclipses calling
The love is heaven sent
The Light is permanent
This may come as no surprise
The diamonds cut within your eyes
They glimmer and they shine
Beneath this empire
Of love
Ordinary day
Within this paradise
Beneath this paradise
Oh my love remains
In the harbor
Of this light
