

Isis Gee, On your knees

How could
You go there again?
Taken
By the Bait again
You're tempted by the nature of the beast again
And I just wanna' better understand
Better comprehend
Your destination leading to temptation
And if your good
I'll forgive you at best
With one small request
Fall on your knees
Fall down
Fall on your knees
Fall down
Laden
With the reasons why
Shaken
Like the fourth of July
Your tempted by the nature of the feast again
And I'm drowning
In your quicksand
In your quicksand
This tribulation leading to deliverance
While one sure questions remains
What were you thinking?
Fall on your knees
Fall down
Fall on your knees
Fall down
