

Isis Gee, This love

This love from me
Melts my heart
You unlock the door with your key
This love you breathe
Lights my soul with immeasurable knowing
And i recall the wind in fall
That carries me
Over to your shore
And i embrace the sun in my hair
Oh i fell like i'm falling down
This love from me
Melts my heart
You unlocks the door endlessly
This love you breathe
Lights my soul with immeasurable knowing
And i recall the wind in fall
That carries me
Over to your shore
And my heart
An open door
To the canvas of the moon
Kissing your floor
