

Isis Gee, What's one more

Filter my way home
Into stillness inside
Fragment of triumph
Echoing with treason and lies
What once was my ally and friend
Has got me back
To waving flags again
So go on break my heart
Shake my heart
You know can't tear
what's already torn apart
Break my heart
Forsake my heart
You did a thousand times before
What's one more?
Harness captive tears
I feel helpless, afraid.
What lies nakedly
Can't be covered again.
What once was my ally and friend
Has got me back
To waving flags again
So go on break my heart
Shake my heart
You know can't tear
what's already torn apart
Break my heart
Forsake my heart
What's one more?
