J.J. Cale, Boilin' Pot

(J.J. Cale)

Now she don't know where she is How sexy she can be She don't realize what her eyes do to me She keeps me hot, like a boilin' pot She whispers in my ear, "Let's do it right here" The ways of a wantin' woman, hauntin' mystery The style she has will never fade as long as she has me She keeps me hot, like a boilin' pot She whispers in my ear, "Let's do it right here" She keeps me hot, like a boilin' pot Burning right through the night It don't take long for her to catch my eye When she wants to suck me in, it's easy as pie She keeps me hot, like a boilin' pot Burning right through the night
