

J.J. Cale, Out Of Style

(J.J. Cale)

I sure do miss you babe
You know it's been a while
Way too long since you been gone
I'm almost out of style

You treat me kind and gentle
You're always on my mind
A love that's true I keep for you
Until the end of time

Someday you've got to come back
Stay with me a while
I'll take some time to make you mine
And keep you out of style
