

J-Shin, One Night Stand

(feat. LaTocha Scott)

[Chorus:]

You say your having a baby,
But I don't know if it's mine.
It all started from a one night stand,
It wasn't part of the plan.
But now I see you got an attitude,
And you're so confused,
You didn't tell me 'bout your man at home,
So what you gonna do?

[Verse 1: J-Shin]

Chillin' in the club on a Saturday night,
Saw you across the floor you were looking so fly,
I can't believe that you were also looking my way,
Yes you were, yes you were.
So I stepped to you with my game down tight,
Before we knew it, it was on for tonight,
So now tell me what's goin' on with you lady.

[Bridge: J-Shin]

So tell me what's going on,
Please don't make me wait.
I know you're living with your man,
Sleeping with your man,
Creepin' with your friends,
Saying you wanna get with me.

[Chorus]

[Verse 2: LaTocha]

Now boy you know just as well as I do,
In order to go half on a baby, it takes two,
Yes it does, yes it does, yes it does.
And even though I had a man at home,
All we ever did was fuss and fight,
Things just wasn't right.
Sick and tired of being mistreated,
Neglected for no reason,
When love was all I needed,
He didn't care, so I cheated.

[Bridge 2: J-Shin]

So this is what's going on,
Baby girl, please don't play.
I know you're living with your man,
Sleeping with your man,
Creepin' with your friends,
Saying you wanna get with me.

[Chorus]

[Break:]

[LaTocha:] See I know it was never meant to, be you and me,
But it's so hard, so hard for me to believe,
That I'm having your baby, and it's driving me crazy.
[J-Shin:] Okay now, I'ma step up and be a real man,
But you have to really have to tell me where I stand,
Cuz if this is mine (it's yours),
Girl I'm ready (are you ready?),
To take responsibility.

[Chorus & Ad-Libs to fade]
