They do, but dont do it like me

Nobody, nobody, Does it Like R.U.L.E.

They do but dont do it like me

Nobody, nobody, Does it Like R.U.L.E.

[Verse 1]

Nobodys livin life the way that I live it

Nobodys spittin and doin it, I spit it

But who fuckin admitted

I'm one of the bigger biggest of niggaz that done did it

Been hated and delt wit it, when agents tap in my lyrics

So by the time that they hear it, the crime's already committed

Natural Born Killa, but that I'm already and then

Murdah was the case, but I-N-C's been acquitted

The Agency's gettin livid, They wanted us to be finished

But we got unfinished business, Sned God as my witness

This is another testimony to my life and my story

Askin you hoes, Why should I talk when I got guns to speak for me

Dont come at me homie, Especially tryin to act like you know me

Only if you can control me, Know where you been choosen before me

To sit in ya grave, homie dig it, I'm hearin its lonely, But see

Nobody...Does it...Like Me! And they know it they cant spit it the same

But still they try, cuz thats part of the game, WHUTS MY NAME?!

[Chorus]

[Verse 2]

These niggaz incredible, throughout the ghettos of America

People, see these window I see through

Off they mirror they evil, jealous bullshit that men do

Had I known it was you, there'd be no clue on who done killed you

Like when Kane murdahd Able, Niggaz must have been able

To put caine through they nasals, They so high they see angels

I see life from all angels, tangled, webs and weaves

Now niggaz is able to kill like Kane all over the streets

100 degrees Ferenheite, hot as the hottest summer night

Heatin up desperatly in the need of some ice, I'm nice

Nobodys quite like, flow like rare blood types

I be wrong if I'm right, right if I'm wrong, I was the RULE born

When my legacy is left through my boys maiden name live on RULE

Niggaz is foolish tryin to do whut I do, Cuz see

Nobody...Does it...Like me! And they know it they cant do it the same

But still they try, cuz thats part of the game WHUT MY NAME?!

[Chorus]
