

Jaci Velasquez, Speak For Me

Mark Heimermann & Toby McKeehan

What have I to offer

To a world in need

Yet for some unknown reason

You have chosen me

Lord, You've set my journey

You've prepared the way

Still I'm desperate for the words to say

All I am is willing

All I have is in Your hands

CHORUS 1:

Speak for me

This my plea

Say the words I can't express

Sing for me

A heavenly melody

That the people would be blessed

Speak for me

Every brief encounter

That you send my way

Is a chance to show the love You gave me

I see their troubled faces

A hunger deep inside

Lord I depend on you to touch their lives

Light what burns within me

Let Your truth shine through my life

CHORUS 2:

Speak for me

This my plea

Say the words I can't express

Sing through me

A heavenly melody

That the people will be blessed

Speak for me, sing for me, set me free

And they will see your holiness

Speak for me

Cause your love will lead them on to heaven's gate

Where they can look upon Your face

Light what burns within me

Let your truth shine through my life

You're all I have to offer

To a world in need
