

Jaci Velasquez, When You Hold Me

You've been so good to me and maybe that's why
I move so carelessly through the greet and goodbyes
I don't notice all the little things, that's why I'm scared
I have been noticing here and I'm needing You here

I've been thinking it over, I've been thinking it over, and I'd like to say...

When You hold me, when You hold me
Put Your arms around me more, put Your arms around me more
When You hold me, when You hold me
Put Your arms around me Lord, when I'm not worth waiting for You're waiting for me

You're all I want to be, and that all I desire Still I've been running free and I'm getting so tired
'Cause I've been chasing all the little things that take me from You
I've just been noticing I don't know what to do

And I've been thinking it over, I've been thinking it over, and I'd like to say...

When You hold me, when You hold me
Put Your arms around me more, put Your arms around me more
When You hold me, when You hold me
Put Your arms around me Lord, when I'm not worth waiting for You're waiting for

When You hold me, when You hold me
Put Your arms around me more, put Your arms around me more
When You hold me, when You hold me
Put Your arms around me Lord, when I'm not worth waiting for You're waited for...
You've waited for me
